9
10 School equipment is not intended for personal use by employees or patrons. Exceptions
11 must be approved by the building site administrator.

13 In addition, any person or group who borrows school equipment with approval must be 14 knowledgeable as to proper operation of the equipment and shall be responsible for any
15 loss or repair beyond normal usage.

17 An employee of the district transferring from one district site to another district site may 18 not remove district equipment and/or materials without building administrator and 19 director approval.

21 Equipment acquired through the grant process or from concurrent credit funds is the 22 property of the school district. Individuals terminating employment with the district may 23 not take any items procured from concurrent credit revenue. An employee transferring
24 from one district site to another district site may transfer the equipment to the new site
25 with the permission of the building administrator located at the site the employee is 26 transferring from.
